In order to be approved for a Livery driver's license, an applicant must:

- Present a valid State of Maine driver's license.
• Demonstrate to the City Clerk that he or she can read, write and speak the English language.
• In the case of a new application, have his or her photograph taken at a place, time and date designated by the Chief of Police, or his or her designee, for City photo identification to be worn in a conspicuous place on the licensee's uniform at all times while operating a Livery within the City of Bangor. In the case of a renewal application, the applicant must present their City photo identification.
• Demonstrate to the Chief of Police, or his or her designee, that the applicant is competent to operate a motor vehicle safely and in accordance with all applicable traffic laws and ordinances.
• Satisfy the Chief of Police, or his or her designee, that the applicant is at present of such good moral character that the applicant can be trusted with the safe care and custody of Livery passengers.
• No license will be issued until the results of the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) criminal background check are received and found to be acceptable by the Chief of Police, or his or her designee.
• Have no outstanding warrants of arrest in Maine or any other jurisdiction.
• Not be a convicted sex offender who is required to register as a sex offender within the State of Maine or is on the national sex offender registry.

Failure to meet any of the foregoing requirements shall be grounds for denial of a Livery license.
